Children in Ancient Greece

Life as a child today:I can go to a school to learn english,maths, history and all sorts of stuff even girls can go to school and learn. I have toys a warm,cosy bed and have beautiful clothes that i can were every single day and get fed three 3 times a day.Each time it is my birthday i get presents wear new clothes and have a party with a delicous cake that is chocolate. I get to play with my siblings on the weekend whenever i want and have to do my homework and sometimes get to go to my friends house.

Ancient Greek School:
In ancient Greece schools were very small and only had 10 or 20 boys that started at age Severn 7 and finished at age 14. They only had five 5 hours per day and had one teacher and also there subjects was music, art, science, Maths, polities.

Ancient Greek toys:
Ancient Greek children had toys such as marbles, animal toys, knuckle bones, miniture vases, iynx, buzers, rattles, yoyos, whistles, spinning tops, however today we have toys that are made out off plastic.
