Children in Ancient Greece

Life as a child today:

I start school at 9:00 till 3:15.All girls go to school you start school at the age 5.We go to school and learn english, maths and we can can read and write. At the end of the day, we go home.People get new toys on their birthday. We play on our tablets and play games. Every weekend we go to the shops and get fresh food.

Ancient Greek School: Ancient Greek schools were small. They only had one teacher and ten to twenty boys. Girls where home schooled if they were rich, if not they couldn't lean how to read or write. They had to lean how to clean and cook.

Ancient Greek Toys
Ancient Greeks played with marbles and stone dolls. Most of their toys were made from wood and carved in to animal figures.
Today our toys are made out of plastic and cotton.
